Sixth Form Learning Mentors (based at York or Askham Bryan College)

Term time only— hours of work variable. Fixed term contract until July 2019
£8.90 per hour

St John's is a residential and day school for deaf pupils aged 4-19, many of whom have additional special educational needs. Our school uses an oral approach to develop pupils' spoken and written language skills, so knowledge of sign language is not required for all posts. Students in our sixth form study mainstream courses at local FE colleges and are supported by school staff.

We are looking for individuals to join a team of experienced colleagues supporting our deaf students who study at York College. This is a fantastic opportunity to join our team of dedicated professionals who are committed to providing the very best life chances for our students.

We would particularly welcome applicants with qualifications and experience in communicating using BSL, and from those with mathematical, engineering or technical skills and experience.

- Taking notes for deaf students during lectures and practical sessions
- Ensuring that students are able to access all information during lessons
- Promote and reinforce pupils' self esteem, independence and participation within the college community
- Maintain friendly, helpful and unobtrusive relationships with college staff
- Contribute as required to record keeping in line with school procedures
